Gospel Reflection: Mother Day

Readings: Eph 1:15-23 and Jn 13:31-35

"I will make you a light to the nations, that my salvation may reach to the ends of the earth." (Isaiah 49:6)

I was talking to a young couple that I had married a few years back. They were each turning thirty years old and had just given birth to their second child in three years. They wanted to talk to me about their sense of sadness at having their time so limited by their children. All the fun they had when they were single and newly married was now buried in diapers and middle-of-the-flight feedings. It was their task now to commit to a greater and fuller reality: the challenge of being a family, of being parents, of becoming connected to families and parents across the universe. They needed to create the new vision of being family that would carry them through the next phase of their life together.

Isaiah and Jesus declare that their lives are at a point of new beginning. They both realize that it is time to engage a new reality, a new challenge. For Isaiah the challenge is to be a light that will lead his people through this time of exile. For Jesus the challenge is to depart from his loved disciples and be glorified.

Holy Week is certainly a time of new beginnings. Perhaps we could look into our lives today and see where we need to begin anew. We look at our seedlings of future growth and pray, "For you are my hope, O LORD; my trust, O God, from my youth." (Psalm 71:5)

Mother's Day: Prayer for Mothers

For Mother

Lord, I ask Your pardon and mercy for the soul of my mother. Through the merits of Mary, Your Mother, Model of all Mothers, forgive her sins and reward her with eternal happiness in return for the sacrifices she made in this life in Your Name. Amen.

Mother Day: Lebanese Moms Are Unique

Lebanese moms are incredibly Unique. On this Mother's Day, we pay tribute to the irreplaceable gem of your family.

- 1- Your mom will never allow you to go hungry. One of her most important goals in life is to make sure you never starve. Your mom makes enough food for the entire village, just in case a few neighbors stop by.
- 2- No matter what job you hold, in your mom's eyes you're a "manager" or "director". Even if you wash dishes at the local restaurant, in your mom's eyes, you're a star. But in your dad's eyes, even if you're elected into parliament, you're still below his level.
- 3- She yells over international phone calls. Your mom definitely gets fired up when making a long distance call. I guess she hasn't realized that phone connections have made significant improvements over the past decade.
- 4- She has a strange obsession with television soap operas. We'll never understand why these foreign soap operas are so fascinating.
- 5- Turkish coffee keeps her going. Nothing can come between your mom and her coffee. Just like a car requires fuel, your mom requires her Turkish coffee. The only difference is that she needs several refuels per day.
- 6- You are constantly compared to other successful people. Fady is already married, has two kids, and a well-paying job - what are you waiting for?
- 7- She would do anything for you. Your mom loves you so much that she's willing to literally "bury" herself for you. Tokborni enshallah. (May you bury me)

Happy Mother's Day to our graceful, glamorous, warm, and caring moms! There aren't enough adjectives to describe you!

From the Desk of the Pastor

Would You Like Your Pastor to Visit You?

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

You are my extended family and you are my brothers and sisters in Christ here in Wheeling. I would like to visit you at your home when all the family is there together in order to know you better. You do not need to prepare anything for my visit. I would be happy to just visit with you for a short time. I have been here in Wheeling sixteen years; and trust me, I still don't know where half of you live. Why? Because half of my parish has not yet given me the chance to visit them. I would feel honored if you would say to me, "Msgr., we would like you to visit us when you have time. The best time is ... and the best day for us is ... . Please call us before you come." You may be sure that I will find time to visit you.

If one of your family members is admitted to the hospital, please don't wait until the hospital call me the second or third day, rather it is better if you call me yourself for quicker visit. --Msgr. Bakhos

Spirituality: Church & Persecution

The white robe of the fool is a judgment on the world; it is the sign of its evil; the death rattle of its wickedness. Because men mock, a verdict is passed on them; because the Church is martyred by evil powers, a sentence has been pronounced on those powers. Their deeds are known to be sinful by what they do to innocence. Thus will men who live in the world and do not know where to look for religion finally find it in the religion which their very world crucified, and in finding it will find peace which the world cannot take away!

True followers of Christ, be prepared to have a world make jokes at your expense. You can hardly expect a world to be more reverent to you than to Our Lord. When it does make fun of your faith, its practices, abstinences, and rituals, then you are moving to a closer identity with Him who gave us our faith. Nor may you repay sneer with sneer. We cannot fight God's battles with the weapons of Satan. Repaying jeer with jeer is not the response of a Christian, for under scorn Our Lord "answered nothing". The world gets more of its amusement from a Christian who fails to be Christian, but none from his respectful silence.

The answer of Our Lord to Herod was that Our Lord continued to be Our Lord. Dogs bay at the moon all night, but the moon gives back no snarl. It goes on shining. Shine forth in your white robe of mockery, O Christian! One day it will be the robe of your glory.

Wisdom

My generation just might have been lucky. I had a drug problem when I was young, but I turned out all right.

I was drug to church on Sunday morning.

I was drug to church for weddings and funerals.

I was drug to family reunions no matter the weather.

I was drug to the bus stop to go to school every weekday.

I was drug by my ears when I was disrespectful to adults and teachers.

I was also drug to the woodshed when I disobeyed my parents.

Those drugs are still in my veins; and they affect my behavior in everything I do, say, and think. They are stronger than cocaine, crack, or heroin, and if today's children had this kind of drug problem, America might be a better place. (Signed, A Senior Citizen)

Reflections On Computers

For all of us who feel only the deepest love and affection for the way computers have enhanced our lives, read on. At a recent computer exposition (COMDEX), Bill Gates reportedly compared the computer industry with the automobile industry and stated, "If GM had kept up with technology like the computer industry has, we would all be driving $25.00 cars that got 1,000 miles to the gallon." In response to Bill's comments, General Motors issued a press release stating: "If GM had developed technology like Microsoft, we would all be driving cars with the following characteristics:

- 1- For no reason whatsoever, your car would crash twice a day;
- 2- Every time they repainted the lines in the road, you would have to buy a new car;
- 3- Occasionally, your car would die on the freeway for no reason. You would have to pull over to the side of the road, close all the windows, shut off the car, restart it, and reopen the windows before you could continue. For some reason, you would simply accept this;
- 4- Occasionally, executing a maneuver such as a left turn would cause your car to shut down and refuse to restart, in which case you would have to reinstall the engine;
- 5- Macintosh would make a car that was powered by the sun, was reliable, five times as fast and twice as easy to drive - but would run on only five percent of the roads;
- 6- The oil, water temperature, and alternator warning lights would all be replaced by a single, "This Car Has Performed An Illegal Operation" warning light;
- 7- The airbag system would ask, "Are you sure?" before deploying;
- 8- Occasionally, for no reason whatsoever, your car would lock you out and refuse to let you in until you simultaneously lifted the door handle, turned the key, and grabbed hold of the radio antenna;
- 9- Every time a new car was introduced, car buyers would have to learn how to drive all over again because none of the controls would operate in the same manner as the old car; and,
- 10- You'd have to press the "Start" button to turn off the engine.
