15th Sunday of Pentecost

Readings: 1Thess 1:1-10 and Lk 7:36-50

Where hearts are in their degree renewed after Christ's image, there, under his grace, gratitude to him will increase our love of him, and we shall rejoice in that goodness which has been so good to us. Here, again, self-discipline will be necessary. It makes the heart tender as well as reverent. Christ showed his love in deed, not in word, and you will be touched by the thought of his cross far more by bearing it after him, than by glowing accounts of it. All the modes by which you bring it before you must be simple and severe; 'excellency of speech,' or 'enticing words,' to use St Paul's language, is the worst way of any. Think of the cross when you rise and when you lie down, when you go out and when you come in, when you eat and when you walk and when you converse, when you buy and when you sell, when you labor and when you rest, consecrating and sealing all your doings with this one mental action, the thought of the crucified. Do not talk of it to others; be silent, like the penitent woman, who showed her love in deep subdued acts. She 'stood at his feet behind him weeping, and began to wash his feet with tears, and did wipe them with the hairs of her head, and kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment'. And Christ said of her, 'Her sins, which are many, are forgiven her, for she loved much; but to whom little is forgiven, the same loveth little.'

(J.H. Newman, Parochial and Plain Sermons, V, 23)

--$500.00 was won by Ruth Byers of Gold, Khourey and Turak, Moundsville

--$250.00 was won by Karen Shipley of Wheeling

Many Thanks

--To all chairpersons and volunteers and generous benefactors who contributed to the success of the Mahrajan. Without you this wonderful tradition will wither and die. Our community is aging but it is still kicking. We are all tired and we need new blood and new young generation to take over and continue what our ancestors started 83 years ago. The Mahrajan Committee believe that young men or women with new fresh ideas should keep the torch of the Mahrajan lit and alive.

Help the less fortunate in Lebanon

--Please read the attached letter of our bishop Elias Zaidan. If anyone wants to join Msgr Bakhos to donate toward this cause, please call the church office at 304-233-1688 or put your donation in the collection with Memo: "Ascauvel Lebanon"

Spirituality

I wanted a car....not a Bible!

A young man was getting ready to graduate from college. For many months he had admired a beautiful sports car in a dealers showroom, and knowing his father could well afford it, he told him that was all he wanted.

As Graduation Day approached, the young man awaited signs that his father had purchased the car. Finally, on the morning of his graduation, his father called him into his private study, told him how proud he was to have such a fine son, and how much he loved him. He handed him a beautifully wrapped gift box.

Curious, but somewhat disappointed, the young man opened the box and found a lovely, leather-bound Bible, with his name embossed in gold.

Angrily, he raised his voice to his father and said, "With all your money you give me a Bible?" He stormed out of the house, leaving the Bible behind.

Many years passed and the young man was very successful in business. He had a beautiful home and wonderful family, but realized his father was very old. He thought perhaps he should go to him. He had not seen him since that graduation day. But before he could make arrangements, he received a telegram telling him his father had passed away, and willed all of his possessions to him. He needed to come home immediately and take care of things.

When he arrived at his father's house, sadness and regret filled his heart. He began to search through his father's important documents and saw the Bible, new, just as he had left it years ago. With tears, he opened the Bible and began to turn the pages. His father had carefully underlined a verse, Matt 7:11, "And if you, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more shall your Heavenly Father which is in Heaven, give to those who ask Him?"

As he read those words, a car key dropped from the back of the Bible. It had a tag with the dealer's name, the same dealer who had the sports car he had desired. On the tag was the date of his graduation, and the words... PAID IN FULL.

How many times do we miss God's blessings because they are not packaged as we expected?

Hunters

President Theodore Roosevelt had a passion for big-game hunting. When he heard that a famous British hunter was visiting the States he invited the man to the White House in the hope of getting some pointers from him. After a two-hour meeting at which the two of them were closeted together and left undisturbed, the Englishman emerged looking somewhat dazed.

"What did you tell the President?" a reporter asked.

"I told him my name," said the worn-out visitor.
