Epiphany: Palm Sunday

Readings: Phil 1:1-13 and Jn 2:12-22

“Blessed is he who comes as king in the name of the Lord!!

Mother Teresa said, “Jesus comes to meet us. To welcome him, let us go to meet him. He comes to us in the hungry, the naked, the lonely, the alcoholic, the drug addict, the prostitute, the street beggars. If we reject them, if we do not go out to meet them, we reject Jesus himself.” Like Jesus, Mother Teresa triumphed by giving to others.

Today Saint Luke’s passion story presents the image of Jesus, a person who is for the other. Jesus prays, forgives, shows deep concern for the outcast, and asks us to follow him in this holy task. We sing today of Jesus’ triumph because of his powerful love for the poor. We praise God in singing the Hosanna because the Lord rides in on a donkey, an animal that the poor of his day rode. If we are to triumph like Jesus, we also must ride with the poor. We must triumph in extending ourselves to those who have less, who are sick, who are dying. If we do so, the Lord will sing a Hosanna to us when we pass into heaven, as we do today to the Lord!

Meditation for Lent: God’s Glory Revealed

“Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God as something to be exploited, but emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, being born in human likeness.” (Philippians 2:5-7)

Precisely when Jesus is being handed over into his passion he manifests his glory. “Whom do you seek? . . . I am he” are words that echo all the way back to Moses and the burning bush: “I am who I am. I am the one” (see Exodus 3:1-6).

These words are the glory of God manifesting itself, and those present fell flat on the ground. Then Jesus was handed over. But already in the handing over we see the glory of God handing himself over to us. God’s glory revealed in Jesus embraces passion as well as resurrection.

“The Son of Man,” Jesus says, “must be lifted up as Moses lifted up the serpent in the desert, so that everyone who believes may have eternal life in him” (John 3:14-15). He is lifted up as a passive victim, making the cross a sign of desolation. And he is lifted up in glory, so the cross becomes at the same time a sign of hope. Suddenly we realize that the glory of God, the divinity of God, is bursting through in Jesus’ passion precisely when he is most victimized.

Lord Jesus, help us to share your view of the world, especially when we suffer injustice.

Divine Liturgy Schedule

This Weekend, April 8-9: Palm Sunday

Palm Processions: On Palm Sunday, we commemorate Christ’s entry into Jerusalem where people came out to meet Him and shout, “Hosanna,” “Save us, O Lord.” On that day, we bless olive branches (symbol of peace) and palm branches (symbol of victory), and we process inside the church with candles to welcome Christ as the King of our life.

The palms will be blessed during both weekend Masses and distributed. We will have a procession with the children inside the church in every Mass. Please bring your children and grandchildren and let us welcome Christ the King in our hearts with the shouts of “Hosannas.”

Saturday, April 8 at 4:00 p.m.: Mass & Procession with Palms

‡ Intentions of the babies & children of the parish & their parents

Sunday, April 9 at 10:30 a.m.: Mass & Procession with Palms

‡ Eugene Blum (Anniversary) by his wife Mary Margaret and Family

‡ Intentions of Joe & Nikki Popovich (wedding anniversary) by Dalton Haas

2017 Passion Week & Easter Schedule

We are entering the most important week of the liturgical year, the week that prepares us to live intensely the Christian Mystery of the Death and the Resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ: Holy Week. The Holy Week is the memorial of those great days of our salvation when Jesus Christ died on the Cross to redeem and save our human race and give us the opportunity to share in His Divine Life.

Lent was for us the time to reflect more and meditate upon our lives so that we can renew ourselves and prepare to live again the mystery of our salvation. Now we are approaching Holy Week and Easter Sunday when we will celebrate the death and the Resurrection of Our Lord.

On Palm Sunday, the children and people have received Jesus Christ as king. They welcomed Him into their city, Jerusalem. They proclaimed "Hosanna to the Son of David; blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord; hosanna in the highest." Jesus found an ass and sat upon it, as is written: "Fear no more, O daughter Zion; see, your king comes, seated upon an ass's colt." He was so humble and so meek. The King of the kings, Lord and Master, the Creator of all, born in a manger, entering Jerusalem sitting on a donkey, and finally crucified between two criminals.

Holy Week, in our Maronite Church, is considered an independent Liturgical Season inside the Season of Lent. It starts with the "Coming to the Harbor" on Monday and is over on Easter Sunday. One week seems to be too short to be considered an independent Season; however, the intensity of ceremonies and celebrations, and the deep spirituality found in those old Syriac texts, prayers and hymns in that week, make it worthy to be the most important week of the year.

I would like to present the ceremonies celebrated during this blessed week so that we may understand its importance and realize the importance of our participation in all services.

Monday April 10 at 6:00 p.m.: Rite of the coming to the Harbor, Mass, Stations of the Cross

✠ For the persecuted Christians in the Middle East by Pam Lantz

Tuesday April 11 at 6:00 p.m.: Rite of the Coming to the Harbor, Mass, Stations of the Cross

✠ Rosella Saseen, parents Nancepe & Helen, grandparents Shikrey & Helen Saseen by her Will

The "Coming to the Harbor" is an old rite of the Maronite Church. It reminds us that Jesus is the Harbor of Salvation. The ship or the vessel, which is the Church, and is often compared to Mary, the New Vessel of life, reaches the Harbor after the safe journey of Lent.

Wednesday April 12 at 6:00 p.m.: Rite of the Lamp, Mass, Stations of the Cross

✠ Nancy Ferris Coffield (Anniversary) by Mary Zaid Stees and Libby G. Magnone

Wednesday of the Passion Week is also called Wednesday of Ayoub (Job). Job suffered a lot, and lost his health and wealth, even his sons and daughters, but never cursed God and was known for his patience. He represents Christ who willingly received suffering and death, and committed himself into his Father's hands. On that day, the Rite of the Lamp is celebrated. Once again, it is an old rite of the Maronite Church. Dough with seven wicks inserted into it represents the seven lamps envisioned by the Prophet Jeremiah and by John the Apostle in his Revelation. During the celebration, the oil is blessed and all the faithful receive the anointing.

Thursday of the Mysteries, April 13 at 6:00 p.m.: Mass of the Lord's Supper & Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament (Choir will sing)

On Holy Thursday or Thursday of the Holy Mysteries, Jesus had his Last Supper with his disciples and washed their feet. He commanded them to love each other and follow his example in serving each other. "So when he had washed their feet and put his garments back on and reclined at table again, he said to them, "Do you realize what I have done for you? You call me 'teacher' and 'master,' and rightly so, for indeed I am. If I, therefore, the master and teacher, have washed your feet, you ought to wash one another's feet. I have given you a model to follow, so that as I have done for you, you should also do. Amen, amen, I say to you, no slave is greater than his master nor any messenger greater than the one who sent him" (John 13:12-16). After the washing of the feet, Jesus went to Mount of Olives and spent his night there praying to His Father for his disciples and his Church so they may be one as He is one with His Father.

On that day, Jesus founded the Sacraments, especially the Sacrament of Eucharist and the Priesthood. It is the Thursday of the Priests par excellence, those servants of the Holy Sacraments and administrators of the Holy Eucharist in memory of Jesus Christ, in memory of His death and Resurrection until he returns.

The custom on that day is to visit seven Churches, symbolizing the seven Sacraments, and to meditate in each Church upon one of the Sacraments. This custom started first in Rome, ' where Christians went to visit seven Churches built upon the seven hills of Rome, to honor the tombs of the first Christian martyrs and disciples, especially the tombs of Peter and Paul. This custom is still in existence in our parishes and churches in Lebanon where thousands of people go in procession from one Church to another to visit the Blessed Sacrament exposed usually after the ceremony of the washing of the feet until the morning of the next day,

On Holy Thursday, the Blessed Sacrament is exposed all night, and the faithful are encouraged to stay in the church as much as they can praying, meditating upon the Mystery of Salvation, and participating in the "agony of Gethsemane" where Jesus spent his night in prayer before His crucifixion on Good Friday. The Maronite Church fulfills the commandment of the Lord Jesus Christ on that day and accomplishes the service of the washing of the feet. The priest, acting in persona Christi, which means in the person of Christ, washes the feet of twelve of his parishioners showing the mystery of love and compassion and performing like Christ the act of ultimate humiliation actually reserved to the slaves who were entrusted with this task to wash their master's feet. Jesus gave himself as an example to follow, and performed that act of humiliation to fulfill the prophecies of the prophets as the Suffering Servant or slave, of whom spoke the prophet Isaiah (Is 53:1-11).

Good Friday, April 14: No Morning or Evening Mass Today in All Catholic Churches

10:30 a.m.: Anaphora of the Signing of the Chalice (No Mass)

6:00 p.m.: Adoration of the Cross & Solemn Burial of the Lord (Choir will sing)

7:00 p.m.: Complimentary Meatless Community Meal

Good Friday is the great day of the year. Jesus was crucified and put to death. He paid the full price of our salvation: his life. He is the Son, the only begotten Son, the inheritor. In Him, through Him and because of Him we became sons and children of Our Father, inheritors of the Heavenly Kingdom and of the Eternal Life. Our Maronite Church invites us on this day to pray and meditate upon the mystery of Salvation: the living death of our Lord which provides salvation of our souls and Eternal Life. Jesus freed us from the impediments of sins. He bore our infirmities and endured our sufferings. "There was in him no stately bearing to make us look at him, nor appearance that would attract us to him. He was spurned and avoided by men, a man of suffering, accustomed to infirmity, one of those from whom men hide their faces, spurned, and we held him in no esteem. Yet it was our infirmities that he bore, our sufferings that he endured, while we thought of him as stricken, as one smitten by God and afflicted. But he was pierced for our offenses, crushed for our sins. Upon him was the chastisement that makes us whole, by his stripes we were healed. We had all gone astray like sheep, each following his own way; But the Lord laid upon him the guilt of us all. Though he was harshly treated, he submitted and opened not his mouth; like a lamb led to the slaughter or a sheep before the shearers, he was silent and opened not his mouth. Oppressed and condemned, he was taken away, and who would have thought any more of his destiny? When he was cut off from the land of the living, and smitten for the sin of his people... Therefore he was given his portion among the great, and he shall divide the spoils with the mighty, Because he surrendered himself to death and was counted among the wicked; And he shall take away the sins of many, and win pardon for their offenses" (Isaiah 53).

On Good Friday, two ceremonies are to be celebrated. The first Celebration is the "Signing of the Chalice" called also "the Liturgy of the Pre-Sanctified." It is a celebration of the Divine Liturgy with no Words of Institution, which are the center of every liturgy. On Good Friday, the only sacrifice is the sacrifice of Christ, who offered himself to his Father. In fact, every Liturgy is a memorial of the sacrifice of the Cross, the Death and the Resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ. However, on Good Friday Christ himself is the sacrifice, the ultimate and the perfect oblation. During the ceremony, the priest invokes the Holy Spirit to descend upon the chalice placed at the altar and make it the Blood of Christ to be given during the communion with the hosts consecrated the night before in the Liturgy of the Holy Thursday. The most important moment of this Liturgy is the procession with the Blessed Sacrament placed over the head of the priest reminding him of his day of ordination, when the Bishop handed over to him the celebration of the Eucharist and entrusted to him the service of the people of God.

The second ceremony is the Adoration of the Cross celebrated in memory of the death of Jesus Christ crucified on the "wood of shame." Jesus was crucified between two criminals. One of them, on the right, repented and won the Kingdom. He entered with Jesus the kingdom prepared for him and for all believers since the foundation of the world. He is the perfect example of repentance. Even at the last minute, Jesus would accept our repentance. He is willing to forgive us and give us new life. During the ceremony, while the priest is reading from the Gospel of Luke the crucifixion of Jesus, the deacon or the server will light the candle placed to the right of the Cross to symbolize the deliverance of the criminal on the right.

Many Christians during that day bring some flowers to honor the Holy Cross. All flowers will be put into the shroud that will be laid in the tomb prepared especially for this day. After the ceremony, the cross is buried until Easter Sunday.

Saturday of the Light, April 15:

10:30 a.m.: Prayer of Forgiveness & Communal Reconciliation (No Mass)

4:00 p.m. NO Mass

7:00 p.m.: Easter Vigil Mass & "Rite of Peace" (Choir will sing)

✠ Steve and Margaret Schlog (Anniversary) by Bob & Fran Saseen

✠ Nick Conti by Mickey & Linda Duffy

Saturday of the Light is the last day of this Holy Week, and subsequently, the last day of Lent. It is the day the Lord had chosen to enter the tomb and to visit the Dead in their tomb. This day is a non-liturgical day. There is no Divine Liturgy that day before Vigil or Midnight. However, a beautiful ceremony is to be celebrated during that day: "the Prayer of Forgiveness". It is an old prayer of the Maronite Church and all the Syriac Churches that celebrate the forgiveness won by the death of Jesus Christ. Saturday of the Light is the day of forgiveness par excellence. All Christians are invited to confess their sins during that ceremony and beseech forgiveness.

Confessions are heard individually, and absolution is given to all those who confessed their sins. This ceremony finds its true meaning in the forgiveness won by the death of Christ and the personal participation of each faithful and the confession of his sins. The end of the liturgy announces already but not yet the Resurrection of Christ, because where forgiveness and peace are, Christ is raised from the Dead, and so we are. The Vigil of Easter is the night before Easter spent in prayers and praises of the Resurrected Christ, and was the perfect time to restore the backsliders to faith and administer Baptism to new catechumens who prepared themselves during all Lent with prayer and fasting. Our Maronite Church shares this tradition with -the Roman Catholic Church. This is a common heritage for all Eastern and Western Churches. However, one of the most important ceremonies and celebrations is the celebration of Easter at Midnight, the first hour of the day. The ceremony of Easter is the Rite of Peace. Jesus Christ is the King of Peace. By His Death and His Resurrection he brought peace to earth. Saint Paul wrote in his letter to the Romans: "Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have gained access (by faith) to this grace in which we stand, and we boast in hope of the glory of God. Not only that, but we even boast of our afflictions, knowing that affliction produces endurance, and endurance, proven character, and proven character, hope, and hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us" (Romans 5:1-5).

The Rite of Peace is celebrated at Midnight Liturgy and/or Easter Sunday morning during the Divine Liturgy when the priest blesses the congregation with the Cross. Easter Sunday is the day of Peace. "In the foreknowledge of God the Father, through sanctification by the Spirit, for obedience and sprinkling with the blood of Jesus Christ: may grace and peace be yours in abundance." (1 Peter 1:2).

Today's theologians and researchers are discovering the profundity and the richness of our Eastern tradition and they are teaching it in all western and European schools and institutions of philosophy and theology... I hope that this description and explanation of the theology and the spirituality of the Maronite Church all through Holy Week will increase in your hearts the love of the Church and participation in all her ceremonies, liturgies and prayers of this blessed week. I hope that you understand better why this week is so important, and why it is necessary to learn more and more about our Maronite Tradition and our Eastern Catholic Churches. The more you discover the richness of our Syriac Tradition, the more you will love your Church, and the more you will be proud to belong to the Eastern Churches.

Easter Sunday, April 16:

10:30 a.m.: Easter Day Mass & "Rite of Peace."

Mother Week Masses (May 13-19)

MOTHER'S DAY WISDOM

"God could not be everywhere, therefore He made mothers." (Proverb)

Wait a minute! Of course God can be everywhere. Have my ancestors forgotten the "omnis?" You know: omniscient, omnipotent, and omnipresent. But just because God can be everywhere at the same time doesn't mean God has to be. After all, God has free will too. Just think about it for a minute. If God were everywhere at once, there would have been no need for Jesus Christ to incarnate. For each of us would already have been incarnations - beings full of the omnipresent God. As separate beings with our own will, though, we are free to accept or reject the divine will, assuming we can determine what that is for us from situation to situation. With each correct choice, we move closer to welcoming God into our life. But God will not force us. For if we fallible human parents respect the dosed doors of our teenaged children, can we expect less from the Creator of the Universe?

Enough theology. This really is about the wisdom of mothers and mothering. My sense of the Hebrew saying is that, out of respect for the Creation, God delegated the maternal function to mothers. Just as the birthing process kicks in automatically when the time has come, so, I believe, does a mother's desire to feed, protect, and care for her child. Men can be nurturing. Teenagers can be effective, responsible baby-sitters. But the maternal instinct is the primary property of mothers.

Not that every biological mother is a good one. Immaturity or mental illness can compromise even a strong desire to mother well. And some mothers are overprotective, and instead of mothering, they smother. Hence all the jokes about Jewish -or Italian- mothers. Moreover, some individuals, such as adoptive mothers, are not biological mothers but are incredibly nurturing. In my childhood, Florine, our African American housekeeper, a woman who had never had children, was my primary caregiver. Despite the presence of my mother, when we had air raid drills during World War II, I always ran to Florine's bed. I knew where I would be safe.

O glorious Queen of Heaven and earth! You are the chosen patroness of all Christian mothers. Bless all mothers and inspire them to seek your protection and guidance so that they become truly Christian Mothers. O most pure, most compassionate Mother of the Divine Savior and of all the children of the Heavenly Father who have been regenerated in the holy sacrament of Baptism.

Mahrajan News

- This year we are preparing the 84th Annual Festival. It will take place at Oglebay Park for two days:
Saturday, August 12th from 4:00 p.m. until 10:00 p.m.
Sunday, August 13th from noon until 7:00 p.m. (outdoor Mass at 10:30 a.m.)
- Parishioners will receive by mail 50/50 raffle tickets. If all ticket are sold, the prize will be $7,500.00 Please share in the raffle and try to sell some to your family and friends in order to help defray the expenses of the festival. Good luck.
- All Mahrajan Sponsors will be listed in the bulletin and in the Ad Book at three levels: Silver ($25 to $49); Gold ($50 to $99); Diamond ($100 and above). Please consider making a donation at one of these levels to support the Mahrajan, to help defray its expenses, and to insure its continuation for future generations.
- It is the dream of the Parish to have two dance troupes to perform at the Festival: one by the children (6-12) and by the young adults (13-20). We will provide Lebanese Folklore costumes and hats for everybody and two trainers to prepare the dancers around this time of the year so that they will be ready for the festival. If you have children or grandchildren please call Msgr. Bakhos at 304-233-1688. Thanks

Diocesan Appeal

The Annual Lenten Appeal for the Eparchy of Our Lady of Lebanon is now taking place. The Eparchy relies upon you to support our Maronite parishes, like this one, and train our future Maronite priests. Every family is asked to be generous and participate in the Appeal at a level which is meaningful for them. Your donation can be mailed to our church or in the collection basket. Our parish's goal for this year's Appeal is $3,000.00. Please be generous and support your Eparchy. Thank you.

Many Thanks for those who fulfilled their Easter Obligation for this year. May God reward you and bless your fasting.

Old Basement Restroom Project Financial Report

This project started in February and ended on March 31st

With the grace of God and the blessing hands of the Blessed Mother we received from anonymous benefactors: $17,900.00 toward the restoration of the last corner of the old basement.

Expenses Paid

Check #	Expenses Description	Paid
3760	Toilet seats, faucets, vanities,...	$1,093.90
3761	Urinal and faucet	439.62
3775	Cabinets	4,000.00
3792	By All Means and More	3,000.00
Cash	Mirror and hooks	27.00
Cash	Light over vanity & bulb	13.89
3814	By All Means and More	3,000.00
3825	By All Means and More	6,526.77
Card	Mirrors and knobs...	100.22
3835	Baseboard	25.00
3836	By All Means and More	235.10
	Electrical work and material	2,123.99
		$20,585.49

Difference paid from the parish budget: 20,585.49 – 17,900.00 = $2,985.49

Many thanks for the generous benefactors and all those who support the church to remain financially sound.

If anyone is interested to see the restoration, please ask Msgr. Bakhos.

Parish Pantry

Food donations for our Parish Pantry can be placed in the marked box, back of the church. Thank you for your spirit of giving.

Around Us

Sponsor a Cedar Tree in Lebanon

The Maronite Church is encouraging emigrants to plant cedar trees in the mountains of Lebanon to preserve this treasure unique to world. King Solomon cut the cedar trees in order to build his Temple. A Memorial plaque will honor your names at the entrance of the cedar forest. Please see brochure with Msgr. Bakhos.

Cost of 1 foot cedar tree is $50.00 and that of 3 foot tree is $100.00. Please call the office 304-233-1688
