Epiphany: New Sunday

Readings: 2 Cor 5:11-21 and Jn 20:26-31

“We have seen the Lord !” The risen Christ had already appeared to the disciples in the absence of Thomas. He had shown the wounds of His passion and imparted to them His messianic peace. In anticipation of Pentecost He had given them the Holy Spirit -the Spirit who by their means would effect the work of salvation. Then came Thomas, and careless of what others thought, but true to himself, said flatly: “Unless I see, I refuse to believe.”

Thomas the apostle was a forthright and honest man: his mentality is revealed in various places in the Gospels. Here he shows us that in what concerns the adventure of faith, he is not easily convinced. How like ourselves he is, in his pursuit of the real, the tangible; mistrustful of ideologies unless they are vouched for by everyday experience. Yet God is not displeased at this! The most amazing thing about faith is that one can believe. The Lord understands this, and a week later takes him at his word and submits to his demand: “Give me your hand and put it into my side. Doubt no longer but believe.”

And what about us, twentieth century believers: are we going to drift through the liturgical celebration of the Easter Season, repeating abstractedly: “Happy are those who have not seen, yet believe ?” We ought rather to follow Thomas in trying to see the power of the Resurrection manifested in our lives -as individuals and as a community! We should wish to see this power healing the wounds of our brothers; undoing oppression; bringing back from the dead those men and women still engulfed in sin.

At least we can offer these a helping hand. Another amazing truth about faith is that we can believe in the impossible and do our utmost to achieve it. Then, and only then, dare we say, quite truthfully: “My Lord and my God !”

Prayer to St. Monica, Patroness Of Mothers

Blessed Monica, mother of St. Augustine, we give thanks to our Father in heaven who looked with mercy upon your tears over your wayward son. His conversion and heroic sanctification were the fruit of your prayers.

Dear St. Monica we now ask you to pray with us for all those sons and daughters that have wandered away from God, and to add your prayers to those of all mothers who are worried over their children. Pray also for us that, following your example, we may, in the company of our children, one day enjoy the eternal vision of our Father in heaven. Amen.

➤ Message from the Volunteers Chairperson:

Our 2017 Mahrajan is fast approaching. This year's 84th Annual Festival will mark a significant change in that it will be held over two days this year - Saturday, August 12th and Sunday, August 13th. What has been critical to the success of prior Mahrajans is the support of its volunteers. We are once again asking the parishioners, family, and friends to donate their energy and time to help make the 2017 Mahrajan a successful, fun event. In the back of the Church are various sign-up time sheets in two hour blocks. We are asking for any and all volunteers to graciously donate their time. If you would like to sign up for more than 2 hours or volunteer at a different stand that would be terrific. Thank you!

Authority

Marshal Ferdinand Foch was Commander of the Allied Forces during the First World War. His chauffeur, Pierre, was sedulously cultivated by newspaper reporters who hoped to get information on what was going on in the Marshal’s mind. They were always asking him when the war would get over.

But Pierre would never say. One day the reporters caught Pierre just as he was leaving headquarters. As they crowded around him, the chauffeur said, “Today the Marshal spoke.” “What did he say?” they asked eagerly. He said, “Pierre, what do you think? When will the war get over?”
