Consecration of the Church

Readings: Heb 9:1-12 and Mt 16:13-20

The Lord said to Peter: “I now say to you: You are Peter and on this rock I will build my Church... I will give you the keys of the Kingdom of Heaven; whatever you bind on earth shall be considered bound in heaven; whatever you loose on earth shall be considered loosed in heaven.” To him again, after his resurrection, he says: “Feed my sheep.” Upon him being one he builds his Church; and though he gives to all the apostles an equal power, and says: “As my Father sent me, even so I send you; you receive the Holy Spirit: whosoever sins you retain, they shall be retained...” yet in order to manifest unity, he has by his own authority so placed the source of the same unity, as to begin from one. Certainly the other apostles also were what Peter was, endowed with an equal fellowship both of honor and power; but a commencement is made from unity, that the Church may be set before us as one; which one Church, in the Song of Songs, does the Holy Spirit design and name in the person of our Lord: “My dove, my spotless one, is but one; she is the only one of her mother, elect of her that bare her.”

He who holds not this unity of the Church, does he think that he holds the faith? He who strives against and resists the Church, is he assured that he is in the Church? For the blessed apostle Paul reaches this same thing, and manifests the sacrament of unity thus speaking: “There is one body, and one spirit, even as you are called in one hope of your calling; one Lord, one Faith, one Baptism, one God.”
