Epiphany of our Lord

Readings: Tit 2:11-3:7 and Lk 3:15-22

“Are you the One whose coming was foretold, or should we look for another? Tell John what you see: the blind have their sight restored, the dead are raised to life, the poor have the good news preached to them, alleluia.”

Now the advertisers are telling us there are “only ten more shopping days till Christmas.” Will we be ready? Will the tree be trimmed, the cards be mailed, the cookies be baked? Are we allowing ourselves the opportunity to really “be ready”?

Or are we getting caught up in the externals -all the “things” that have become associated with Christmas but have nothing to do with Christ? We know that soulful repentance is more important than glitzy gift-wrapping, but ... John the Baptist does his best to prepare us. He baptizes many and preaches a “Christian ethic.” Earlier prophecies, read today from Zephaniah and Isaiah, have us “filled with expectation,” for we have heard that “great in your midst is the Holy One of Israel.” But John is careful to point out that he is not the promised Messiah. We must continue to wait.

Still, today we celebrate, for the day we are awaiting has drawn very close. Rejoice! And light a candle and listen to Saint Paul telling us to “rejoice in the Lord always ... [because] ... the Lord is near.”

Tax Deduction Statements Mailed

Dear parishioners and benefactors,

All those generous parishioners and benefactors who donated to the church during 2017 $250.00 or more will receive a statement before January 15, 2018 for their tax deduction. Those who donated less than $250.00 could not deduct that amount according to the IRS rule so there is no need to mail them a statement unless requested by the donor. We thank you for supporting our miraculous church. The Blessed Mother deserves your love.

Masses for Our Faithful Departed (Saturday, February 3, thru Friday, February 9)

Before Great Lent, the church urges parishioners to remember their parents and beloved ones in the offering of the Mass which is the pleasing to God; it is the offering of love of the Son of God on the Cross.

Prayer For Departed Loved Ones

O Almighty God, Who by the love which You have for men, have willed to take our humanity, to live a life of hard work, to suffer a most cruel Passion, and finally to die on the Cross, I beseech You, by the infinite merits purchased for us with Your precious Blood, look mercifully on the suffering which is endured by the holy souls in Purgatory. Accept, O merciful God, the prayers which I offer for them, and call them to the glory of heaven. I recommend to You the souls of my relatives, friends and benefactors, and in a special manner of those to whom I may have been an occasion of sin by my bad example.

Most Holy Virgin, Mother of Mercy, Comforter of the Afflicted, intercede for those souls, that, by your powerful intercession, they may be admitted to enjoy that kingdom which is prepared for them. Amen.

Parish Condolences: George Thomas

The pastor and the parishioners of Our Lady of Lebanon Church, offer their heartfelt sympathy to the Thomas Family on the loss of their beloved George. Msgr. Bakhos celebrated the funeral Mass on Friday, January 5th at our Church. The Women Society served the Mercy Meal after the burial. May the Blessed Mother intercede for him and lead him to the light of Christ. We extend the parish's condolences to his Family in their time of sorrow.

In Our Mailbox,

"Msgr. Bakhos,

My father, Richard Blum, and I have been attending the Saturday service at Our Lady of Lebanon church. We both get our "spiritual fix" and definitely walk away with a warm and happy heart. Our Mary Margaret loved you and dad and I are seeing why. Since living here with dad, I appreciate the word far more than in past years..... I also appreciate my dad's coming with such interest to hear you. -makes me blessed. I am also grateful for you coming to him for Communion. Shows how special you are. God bless and happy new year, Debra Supalla and Richard Blum. Glen Easton, WV"

Wisdom: Count Your Blessings

If we could shrink the earth's population to a village of precisely 100 people, with all the existing human ratios remaining the same, it would look something like the following.

There would be:

57 Asians, 21 Europeans, 14 from the Western Hemisphere, both north and south, 8 would be Africans. 52 would be female, 48 would be male. 70 would be non-white, 30 would be white. 70 would be non-Christian, 30 would be Christian. 6 people would possess 59% of the entire world's wealth and all 6 would be from the United States. 80 would live in substandard housing, 70 would be unable to read, 50 would suffer from malnutrition. 1 would be near death; 1 would be near birth; 1 (yes, only 1) would have a college education; 1 (yes, only 1) would own a computer.

When one considers our world from such a compressed perspective, the need for acceptance, understanding, and education becomes glaringly apparent.

And, therefore . . .

If you have food in the refrigerator, clothes on your back, a roof over your head, and a place to sleep, you are richer than 75% of this world.

If you woke up this morning with more health than illness, you are more blessed than the million who will not survive this week.

If you have money in the bank, in your wallet, and spare change in a dish someplace, you are among the top 8% of the world's wealthy.

If you can attend a church meeting without fear of harassment, arrest, torture, or death, you are more blessed than three billion people in the world.

If you have never experienced the danger of battle, the loneliness of imprisonment, the agony of torture, or the pangs of starvation, you are ahead of 500 million people in the world.

If your parents are still alive and still married, you are very rare, especially in the United States.

If you can hold someone's hand, hug them, or even touch them on the shoulder, you are blessed because you can offer a healing touch.

If you hold up your head with a smile on your face and are truly thankful, you are blessed because the majority can, but most do not.

If you can read this message, you have just received a double blessing in that someone was thinking of you, and furthermore, you are more blessed than over two billion people in the world who cannot read at all.

As you read this and are reminded how life is in the rest of the world, remember just how blessed you really are!

A Time to Laugh (340)

Smile with kids

--"Our family just bought one of those furry Chinese dogs."

--"Chow?"

--"No, thanks. I just had lunch."

--Mom: "If you're good, I'll give you a shiny new penny."

--Son: "Haven't you got a dirty old nickel?"

--"How many controls do you have for your television set?"

--"Four: my father, my mother, and my two brothers."

--"Do you have holes in your socks?"

--"No."

--"Then how do you get your feet in them?"

--"Are you a good soccer player?"

--"I'm so good I can play without using my hands."

The Gift

Three sons left home, went out on their own and prospered. Getting back together, they discussed the gifts they were able to give their elderly mother. The first said, "I built a big house for our mother."

The second said, "I sent her a Mercedes with a driver."

The third smiled and said, "I've got you, both beat. You know how Mom enjoys the Bible, and you know she can't see very well. I sent her a brown parrot that can recite the entire Bible. It took 20 monks in a monastery 12 years to teach him. I had to pledge to contribute $100,000.00 a year for 10 years, but it was worth it. Mom just has to name the chapter and verse, and the parrot will recite it."

Soon thereafter, Mom sent out her letters of thanks to her sons.

"Milton," she wrote the first son, "The house you built is so huge. I live in only one room, but I have to clean the whole house."

"Marvin," she wrote to another, "I am too old to travel. I stay home all the time, so I never use the Mercedes. And the driver is so rude!"

"Dearest Melvin," she wrote to her third son, "You were the only son to have the good sense to know what your mother likes. That chicken was delicious!"

Grandma's Apron

The principle use of Grandma's apron was to protect the dress underneath, but along with that, it served as a holder for removing hot pans from the oven. It was also wonderful for drying children's tears, and on occasion it was even used for cleaning out dirty ears. From the chicken coop the apron was used for carrying eggs, fussy chicks, and sometimes half-hatched eggs to be finished in the warming oven. When company came, those aprons were ideal hiding places for shy kids, and when the weather was cold, grandma wrapped it around her arms. Those big old aprons wiped many a perspiring brow, bent over the hot wood stove. Chips and kindling wood were brought into the kitchen in that apron. From the garden, it carried all sorts of vegetables. After the peas had been shelled, it carried out the hulls. In the fall, the apron was used to bring in apples that had fallen from the trees. When unexpected company drove up the road, it was surprising how much furniture that old apron could dust in a matter of seconds. When dinner was ready, Grandma walked out onto the porch, waved her apron, and the men knew it was time to come in from the fields to dinner.

It will be a long time before someone invents something that will replace that "old-time apron" that served so many purposes
