Palm Sunday

Readings: Phil 1:1-13 and Jn 12:12-22

With the Hebrew children, the Church today takes part in the prophetic triumph of Christ, who enters the holy city of Jerusalem in order to pass from this world to the Father.

The narratives of the passion read today are certainly the early kernels of our Gospel. Each evangelist has his individual set of values and emphases when telling this simple yet dramatic story. Careful to show that Christianity was no rebellious or criminal movement, the evangelists highlight the plot that led to the death of Jesus, the innocent Servant crucified for sinners. For the Jewish people, the conformity of this death with the scriptures is demonstrated not only by the central event of the passion itself, but also by its details. The historical framework of the crucifixion set into the Jewish celebration of the Pasch is of particular significance. There is a sacrifice, a new rite of covenant, which is to replace the immolation of a lamb. And, for Christians, there is the exemplary value of prayer, lowliness, suffering and endurance -all of which went to the perfecting of Jesus' human nature.

In the light of the Cross, other elements of faith are emphasized: the relationship of Jesus with Judaism; the origin and nature of the Church's mission; the role of the Apostles in general, and that of Peter in particular.

These varying accounts cannot be reduced to a mere listing of events. Stamped by the personality of each evangelist, each forms a unified narrative of which the dominant theme is the mastery of God over the assaults of evil, an evil which reached its apex in the passion of our Lord Jesus Christ.

What's New

Diocesan Survey to be Completed by April 8th.

Our diocese is conducting a comprehensive survey of the entire Diocese. A copy of this survey is attached to this bulletin. The purpose of the survey is to help gauge support for the following projects that constitute our diocese master plan:

- Establishing new Maronite parishes throughout the Eparchy (diocese),
- Funds to provide for the education of seminarians,
- Caring for our retired priests,
- Enhancing Eparchy ministries by expanding Youth Ministry and creating a Pro-Family Ministry,
- Establishing a permanent Eparchy Communications office,
- Creating a family catechesis program to provide religious education to Maronites of all ages,
- Enhancing Maronite liturgical life through training for choirs and better translation of liturgical materials into English.

Bishop A. Elias Zaidan would like to thank everyone who has already participated in the study. Your thoughts are extremely valuable to him during this planning process. If you have not yet responded to a survey, you are encouraged to do so. Your input will help the diocese make an informed decision regarding the long-range plans for the Eparchy.

We hope to have all surveys completed by April 18, 2018 you may return your survey to the office or place it in the offertory basket at any of the Masses. You may also complete the survey online by going to steiergroup.com/survey, clicking on Eparchy of Our Lady of Lebanon of Los Angeles and entering the password: Lebanon.

A Time to Laugh (351)

An elderly couple who were childhood sweethearts had married and settled down in their old neighborhood and are celebrating their sixtieth Wedding Anniversary...They walk down the street to their old school, they hold hands as they find the old desk they'd shared and where he had carved "I love you, Sally"...

On their way back home, a bag of money falls out of an Armored Car practically at their feet... She quickly picks it up, but they don't know what to do with it so they take it home... There, she counts the money, and it is fifty-thousand dollars.

The husband says, "We've got to give it back"... She says, "Finders keepers" And she puts the money back in the bag and hides it up in their attic.

The next day, two FBI men are going door-to-door in the neighborhood looking for the money and show up at their home. They say, "Pardon me, but did either of you find any money that fell out of an Armored Car yesterday."

She says, "No". The husband says, "She's lying. She hid it up in the attic". She says, "Don't believe him, he's getting senile." But the Agents sat the man down and begin to question him. One says, "Tell us the story from the beginning".

The old man says, "Well, when Sally and I were walking home from school yesterday..."

The FBI Agent looks at his partner and says, "We're outta here."

The Atheist

In Florida, an atheist became incensed over the preparation for Easter and Passover holidays and decided to contact his lawyer about the discrimination inflicted on atheists, by the constant celebrations afforded to Christians and Jews with all their holidays while the atheists had no holiday to celebrate. The case was brought before a wise judge who, after listening to the long passionate presentation of his lawyer, promptly banged his gavel and declared, "Case dismissed!" The lawyer immediately stood and objected to the ruling and said, "Your honor, how can you possibly dismiss this case? Surely the Christians have Christmas, Easter and many other observances. And the Jews... why in addition to Passover they have Yom Kippur and Hanukkah... and yet my client and all other atheists have no such holiday! The judge leaned forward in his chair and simply said, "Obviously your client is too confused to know about or to celebrate the atheists' holiday!"

The lawyer pompously said, "We are aware of no such holiday for atheists, just when might that be, your honor?"

The judge said "Well it comes every year on exactly the same date: April 1st! The fool says in his heart, 'There is no God.'" (Psalm 14:1)

Religion

The play was in progress at the village theatre when the curtain was suddenly lowered and the manager stepped before the audience. "Ladies & gentlemen," he said, "It distresses me deeply to have to announce that the leading actor, our great and beloved mayor himself, has just had a fatal heart attack in his dressing room. We are therefore forced to stop the play. On hearing this announcement a huge middle-aged woman in the front row stood up and shouted agitatedly: "Quick! Give him chicken broth." "Madam," said the manager, "The heart attack was fatal. The man is dead! "So, give it to him at once!" The manger was desperate, "Madam," he pleaded, "What good will chicken broth do to a dead man?" "What harm will it do?" she shouted
