Readings: Gal 3:15-22 and Lk 1:26-38

The lingering question, as we honor the Lord on his birthday, is why was he accepted by so few? Was he so strange that they could not recognize him? Was he so different that he was beyond their expectations? No. The problem was that he was too much like them. So many had already decided how God should act, how He should come among them. They had forgotten that the Lord had spoken through Isaiah: “For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways.” (Isaiah 55:8)

Nazareth. The Annunciation. The Incarnation. They are our warnings to keep ourselves open to the Lord, wherever and however He may manifest Himself. He is the God of surprises who comes in amazing ways. The apostle Nathaniel wondered, “Can anything good come out of Nazareth?” He was told, “Come and see.” Be surprised, be amazed, and be open. He is Emmanuel—God with us. But in ways we did not expect.

What's New?

Christmas Novena (All Saturdays and Sundays before Christmas 1/2 hour before Mass)

Christmas Novena will replace the Rosary and Litany on all Saturdays and Sundays during December until Christmas. It is a good way to prepare ourselves spiritually to the coming of our Lord. Please come early half hour early and attend the beautiful prayers and Benediction of the Novena.

Holiday Food Barrell (Now thru December 18th, 2018)

Please bring items for the needy of our Parish and put them in the Holiday Barrell placed at the entrance of the church. As soon as we can fill few boxes of food, it will be distributed to needy people on your behalf. Please be the Santa Clause this year and instill a Christmas Joy in the hearts of the less fortunate among us.

Pita Bread and other items for Sale at the church:

There are 8 frozen packages of large pita bread available. Also Burghol #1 and #2 are available. Please see Mike Linton or one of the Ladies of our church to purchase some.

Christmas Story: Remember my Birthday

“As you well know, we are getting closer to my birthday. Every year there is a celebration in my honor and I think that this year the celebration will be repeated. During this time there are many people shopping for gifts, there are many radio announcements, TV commercials, and in every part of the world everyone is talking that my birthday is getting closer and closer.

It is really very nice to know, that at least once a year, some people think of me. As you know, the celebration of my birthday began many years ago. At first people seemed to understand and be thankful of all that I did for them, but in these times, no one seems to know the reason for the celebration.

Family and friends get together and have a lot of fun, but they don't know the meaning of the celebration. I remember that last year there was a great feast in my honor. The dinner table was full of delicious foods, pastries, fruits, assorted nuts and chocolates. The decorations were exquisite and there were many, many beautifully wrapped gifts.

But, do you want to know something? I wasn't invited. I was the guest of honor and they didn't remember to send me an invitation. The party was for me, but when that great day came, I was left outside, they closed the door in my face and I wanted to be with them and share their table.

In truth, that didn't surprise me because in the last few years all close their doors to me. Since I was not invited, I decided to enter the party without making any noise. I went in and stood in a corner. They were all drinking; there were some who were drunk and telling jokes and laughing at everything. They were having a great time. To top it all, this big fat man all dressed in red wearing a long white beard entered the room yelling Ho-Ho-Ho! He seemed drunk. He sat on the sofa and all the children ran to him, saying: "Santa Claus, Santa Claus"... as if the party were in his honor!

At midnight, all the people began to hug each other; I extended my arms waiting for someone to hug me and ... do you know ... no one hugged me.

Suddenly they all began to share gifts. They opened them one by one with great expectation. When all had been opened, I looked to see if, maybe, there was one for me.

What would you feel if on your birthday everybody shared gifts and you did not get one? I then understood that I was unwanted at that party and quietly left.

Every year it gets worse. People only remember to eat and drink, the gifts, the parties and nobody remembers me. I would like this Christmas that you allow me to enter into your life.

I would like that you recognize the fact that almost two thousand years ago I came to this world to give my life for you, on the cross, to save you. Today, I only want that you believe this with all your heart. I want to share something with you. As many didn't invite me to their party, I will have my own celebration, a grandiose party that no one has ever imagined, a spectacular party. I'm still making the final arrangements. Today I am sending out many invitations and there is an invitation for you. I want to know if you wish to attend and I will make a reservation for you and write your name with golden letters in my great guest book.

Only those on the guest list will be invited to the party. Those who don't answer the invitation will be left outside.

Do you know how you can answer this invitation? It is by extending it to others whom you care for... I'll be waiting for all of you to attend my party this year...

See you soon ... I love you! Jesus.”

A Time to Laugh (386)

A minister concluded that his church was getting into serious financial troubles. Coincidentally, by chance, while checking the church storeroom, he discovered several cartons of new bibles that had never been opened and distributed. So at his Sunday sermon, he asked for three volunteers from the congregation who would be willing to sell the bibles door-to-door for $10 each to raise desperately needed money for the church. Peter, Paul and Louie all raised their hands to volunteer for the task. The reverend knew that Peter and Paul earned their livings as salesmen and were likely capable of selling some bibles, but he had serious doubts about Louie who was just a little local farmer who had always tended to keep to himself because he was embarrassed by his speech impediment. Poor little Louis stuttered badly. But, not wanting to discourage poor Louis, the reverend decided to let him try anyway.

He sent the three of them away with the back seat of their cars stacked with bibles and asked them to meet with him and report the results of their door-to-door selling efforts the following Sunday. When they got together, the reverend immediately asked Peter, "Well, Peter, how did you make out selling our bibles last week?" Proudly handing the reverend an envelope, Peter replied, "Pastor, using my sales prowess, I was able to sell 20 bibles, and here's the $200 collected on behalf of the church." "Fine job, Peter!" the reverend said, vigorously shaking his hand. "You are indeed a fine salesman and the Church is indebted to you."

Turning to Paul, he asked "And how many bibles did you manage to sell for the church last week?" Paul, smiling and sticking out his chest, confidently replied, "Reverend, I am a professional salesman and was happy to give the church the benefit of my expertise. Last week I sold 28 bibles on behalf of the church, and here's $280 I collected." The reverend responded, "That's absolutely splendid, Paul. You are truly a professional salesman and the church is also indebted to you."

Apprehensively, the reverend turned to little Louie and said, "And Louie, did you manage to sell any bibles last week?" Louie silently offered the reverend a large envelope. The reverend opened it and counted the contents. "What is this?" the reverend exclaimed. "Louie, there's $3200 in here! Are you suggesting that you sold 320 bibles for the church, door to door, in just one week? Louie just nodded. "That's impossible!" both Peter and Paul said in unison. "We are professional salesmen, yet you claim to have sold 10 times as many bibles as we could." "Yes, this does seem unlikely," the reverend agreed. "Please explain how you managed to accomplish this, Louie." Louie shrugged. "I-I-I- re-re-really do-do-don't kn-kn-know f-f-f-for sh-sh-sh-sure," he stammered. Impatiently, Peter interrupted. "For crying out loud, Louie, just tell us what you said to them when they answered the door!" "A-a-a-all I-I-I s-s-said wa-wa-was," Louis replied, "W-w-w-w-would y-y-y-you l-l-l-l-l-like t-t-to b-b-b-buy th-th-th-this b-b-b-b-bible f-f-for t-t-ten b-b-b-bucks ---o-o-o-or--- wo-wo-would yo-you j-j-j-just l-like m-m-me t-t-to st-stand h-h-here and r-r-r-r-r-read it t-to y-y-you?"

The Economy is so Bad ...

- 1- CEO's are now playing miniature golf.
- 2- Women are marrying for love.
- 3- Hot Wheels & Matchbox stocks are trading higher than GM.
- 4- McDonalds is selling the 1/4 ounce.
- 5- Parents in Beverly Hills are firing their nannies & learning their children's names.
- 6- A truckload of Americans got caught sneaking into Mexico.
- 7- The most highly-paid job is now jury duty.
- 8- Dick Cheney took his stockbroker hunting.
- 9- People in Africa are donating money to Americans.
- 10- Mothers in Ethiopia are telling their kids, "Finish what's on your plate, do you know kids are starving in the US?"
- 11- Motel Six won't leave the light on.
- 12- The Mafia is laying off judges.
- 13- And finally... Congress says they are looking into this Bernard Madoff scandal. Hey, great! ... The guy who made $50 billion disappear is being investigated by people who made $750 billion disappear.
