Sunday of the Paralytic

Readings: 1Tim 5:24-6:5 and Mk 2:1-12

“Your Sins Are Forgiven.”

Joshua is paralyzed He has consulted every healer in the area. To no avail. Then, one day, his friends come to tell him there is one who might be able to help. He’s right here, today, in Capernaum. A spark of hope is enkindled in Joshua’s heart as four of his friends gently place him on a pallet, and carry him to Peter’s home.

Too late! A large crowd fills the house and surrounds the entrance. Surely they will give way to let them carry in their friend! When no one helps clear a path, they carry their friend to the rear of the house, seeking another entrance. That failing, they resort to extreme measures. Somehow, they lift the pallet to the low roof, and begin to make a new entrance! They’ve come to help their friend, and will not be deterred by any obstacle!

Chances are, the roof was not one that we’re familiar with; it was probably fashioned of packed earth and stones. All the same, they had to believe it was worth all the effort; they had to believe this man Jesus could do what no one else could. Two powerful forces are at work here: love and faith. We can only imagine the scene within as particles of earth and stone filter into the room. Imagine how you would feel if suddenly this roof began to disintegrate! In the midst of all the commotion, Jesus remained calm, waiting for the paralytic, just as he waits for you and me: calmly, hopefully.

Then, Jesus startled the crowd, a crowd among whom were several Scribes. This was toward the beginning of Jesus’ public ministry. He needed to establish his claim as Son of Man; the Scribes, on the other hand, needed to discredit him, for he posed a threat to their authority.

Jesus’ first words were of praise for the faith of the friends who had gone to such lengths, followed immediately by this simple promise to the paralytic, “Child, your sins are forgiven.”

This is not what anyone expected! The paralytic sought healing; the delighted Scribes had their chance to discredit Jesus!” He blasphemes! Only God can forgive sins!”

As would happen so many times in the years to come, the Scribes played right into Jesus’ hand. Reading their thoughts, hearing their murmuring gave him the opening he wanted. He challenged the Scribes -and the crowd- to consider which is greater: to forgive sins or to heal physical infirmities. If they had felt sure that Jesus couldn’t cure the paralytic, they would have chosen the latter; but they weren’t sure about this man yet! Rather than trap themselves further, they said nothing.

Just as he would do with Bartimaeus, the man blind from birth, Jesus made it clear that paralysis was not caused by sin. Then he spoke these powerful words to the stunned crowd: “that you may know that the Son of Man has authority to forgive sins on earth,... I say to you, rise, pick up your mat and go home.”

Now, this itinerant preacher claims to be the Son of Man, and seals his claim by instantly curing a paralytic! The man picked up his mat -and walked; we can be quite sure that a path was open for him this time!

Paralysis though, is not confined to body parts. All of us experienced a real paralysis of fear on 09-11-01 and subsequent days. We live with paralyzing fear of war on a global scale, and violence in our own neighborhoods. We recognize and fear our own inadequacy to combat evil that we see around us and within us. If we are to be “cured,” we must have the faith and love proclaimed in today’s gospel, to claw our way through whatever roof is keeping us from the Son of Man. That is where the cure must begin!

Spirituality: forgiveness

A wealthy Jewish merchant treats a poor old man with rudeness and disdain as they travel together on a train. When they arrive at their common destination, the merchant finds the station thronged with pious Jews waiting in ecstatic joy to greet the arrival of one of the holiest rabbis in Europe, and learns to his chagrin that the old man in his compartment is that saintly rabbi.

Embarrassed at his disgraceful behavior and distraught that he missed a golden opportunity to speak in privacy to a wise and holy man, the merchant pushes his way through the crowd to find the old man. When he reaches him, he begs the rabbi's forgiveness and requests his blessing. The old rabbi looks at him and replies, "I cannot forgive you. To receive forgiveness you must go out and beg it from every poor old person in the world."

Wisdom

Cell Phone cooks our brains daily

It takes approximately 2 minutes of speaking on a cellular phone for the radiation to cross the protective Blood Brain Barrier. So whenever there is a landline available use it in preference to your cell.

How Two Russian Journalists Cooked an Egg with their Mobile Phones.

Vladimir Lagovski and Andrei Moiseynko from Komsomolskaya Pravda Newspaper in Moscow decided to learn first-hand how harmful cell phones are. There is no magic in cooking with your cell phone. The secret is in the radio waves that the cell phone radiates.

The journalists created a simple microwave structure. They called from one cell phone to the other and left both phones on talking mode. They placed a tape recorder next to phones to imitate sounds of speaking so the phones would stay on.

After, 15 minutes: The egg became slightly warm.

25 minutes: The egg became very warm.

40 minutes: The egg became very hot.

65 minutes: The egg was cooked.

Story

WHAT GOD, CAN DO WITH 57 cents.

A sobbing little girl stood near a small church from which she had been turned away because it "was too crowded." "I can't go to Sunday School," she sobbed to the pastor as he walked by.

Seeing her shabby, unkempt appearance, the pastor guessed the reason and, taking her by the hand, took her inside and found a place for her in the Sunday school class. The child was so happy that they found room for her, that she went to bed that night thinking of the children who have no place to worship Jesus.

Some two years later, this child lay dead in one of the poor tenement buildings and the parents called for the kindhearted pastor, who had befriended their daughter, to handle the final arrangements.

As her poor little body was being moved, a worn and crumpled purse was found which seemed to have been rummaged from some trash dump. Inside was found 57 cents and a note scribbled in childish handwriting which read, "This is to help build the little church bigger so more children can go to Sunday School. For two years she had saved for this offering of love.

When the pastor tearfully read that note, he knew instantly what he would do. Carrying this note and the cracked, red pocketbook to the pulpit, he told the story of her unselfish love and devotion.

He challenged his deacons to get busy and raise enough money for the larger building. But the story does not end there!

A newspaper learned of the story and published it. It was read by a Realtor who offered them a parcel of land worth many thousands. When told that the church could not pay so much, he offered it for 57 cents.

Church members made large donations. Checks came from far and wide.

Within five years the little girl's gift had increased to $250,000.00--a huge sum for that time (near the turn of the century). Her unselfish love had paid large dividend.

When you are in the city of Philadelphia, look up Temple Baptist Church, with a seating capacity of 3,300 and Temple University, where hundreds of students are trained.

Have a look, too, at the Good Samaritan Hospital and at a Sunday School building which houses hundreds of Sunday Schoolers, so that no child in the area will ever need to be left outside during Sunday school time.

In one of the rooms of this building may be seen the picture of the sweet face of the little girl whose 57 cents, so sacrificially saved, made such remarkable history. Alongside of it is a portrait of her kind pastor, Dr. Russel H. Conwell, author of the book, "Acres of Diamonds."

A Time to Laugh (495)

Church humor

LOT 'S WIFE:

The Sunday School teacher was describing how Lot's wife looked back and turned into a pillar of salt, when little Jason interrupted, 'My Mommy looked back once, while she was driving,' he announced triumphantly, 'and she turned into a telephone pole!'

GOOD SAMARITAN:

A Sunday school teacher was telling her class the story of the Good Samaritan. She asked the class, 'If you saw a person lying on the roadside, all wounded and bleeding, what would you do?'

A thoughtful little girl broke the hushed silence, 'I think I'd throw up.'

DID NOAH FISH?

A Sunday school teacher asked, 'Johnny, do you think Noah did a lot of fishing when he was on the Ark?'

'No,' replied Johnny. 'How could he, with just two worms.'

HIGHER POWER:

A Sunday school teacher said to her children, 'We have been learning how powerful kings and queens were in Bible times. But, there is a higher power. Can anybody tell me what it is?'

One child blurted out, 'Aces!'

MOSES AND THE RED SEA:

Nine-year-old Joey was asked by his mother what he had learned in Sunday School.

'Well, Mom, our teacher told us how God sent Moses behind enemy lines on a rescue mission to lead the Israelites out of Egypt. When he got to the Red Sea, he had his army build a pontoon bridge and all the People walked across safely. Then, he radioed headquarters for reinforcements. They sent bombers to blow up the bridge and all the Israelites were saved.'

'Now, Joey, is that really what your teacher taught you?' his mother asked.

'Well, no, Mom. But, if I told it the way the teacher did, you'd never believe it!'

THE LORD IS MY SHEPHERD:

A Sunday School teacher decided to have her young class memorize one of the most quoted passages in the Bible; Psalm 23. She gave the youngsters a month to learn the chapter. Little Rick was excited about the task -- but, he just couldn't remember the Psalm. After much practice, he could barely get past the first line. On the day that the kids were scheduled to recite Psalm 23 in front of the congregation, Ricky was so nervous. When it was his turn, he stepped up to the microphone and said proudly, 'The Lord is my Shepherd, and that's all I need to know.'

UNANSWERED PRAYER?

The preacher's 5 year-old daughter noticed that her father always paused and bowed his head, for a moment, before starting his sermon.

One day, she asked him why. 'Well, Honey,' he began, proud that his daughter was so observant of his messages, 'I'm asking the Lord to help me preach a good sermon.'

'How come He doesn't do it?' she asked.

BEING THANKFUL

A rabbi said to a precocious six-year-old boy, 'So your mother says your prayers for you each night? That's very commendable. What does she say?'

The little boy replied, 'Thank God he's in bed!'
