Easter Sunday

Readings: 1 Cor 15:12-26 and Mk 16:1-8

Easter always comes in the spring. Spring follows winter and Easter follows Great Friday and ends the Great Fast (Lent). Some comparisons will help us better understand the true meaning of Easter.

BEFORE EASTER:

Before spring, during winter season, the whole earth is gloomy. Fields and forests are desolate and dead. Nothing grows. The birds are silent. The flowers are missing. The atmosphere is icy. During the Great Fast, our efforts aimed to tame and control our selfish selves through our prayer and fasting. Temporal and material things are reduced to the minimum -food, liquor, pleasure, leisure, etc.- for the sake of the spiritual growth. Winter is oriented to spring, and Great Fast is oriented to Easter. Dead winter emerges in flourishing spring, and Great Friday is but the preparation to the Resurrection.

AT EASTER:

Therefore, Jesus' rising from the dead is like spring breaking forth. Spring, indeed, is the season of new beginnings. The seeds are germinating. Plants and trees have new flowers and new leaves. A new life starts in the nature. Winter time is over. At Easter, the winter of mankind is also over and the world is no more desolate. For a new life is given us by the Lord's Resurrection. All mankind is renewed in Christ. Our personal spring followed the period of fasting and mortification. Now, Risen Christ revives us and makes us grow in a new form of life. Thanks to Him, after we are dead we have come back to life; after we were lost we now are found. In Him we became new creatures.

To keep us alive in His grace, Jesus established the Mysteries or Sacraments of the Church as channels of renewal in our lives. In our baptism we died and rose with Christ, as Saint Paul says: "THROUGH BAPTISM INTO HIS DEATH WE WERE BURIED WITH HIM, SO THAT, JUST AS CHRIST WAS RAISED FROM THE DEAD BY THE GLORY OF THE FATHER, WE TOO MIGHT LIVE A NEW LIFE." (Romans 6:4). If, after baptism, we die again in committing sin, we may rise again to the life through the sacrament of reconciliation. Risen Jesus alone can open for us the springs of grace and salvation, if we remain closely in touch with Him and His Church.

During the year, we celebrate Jesus' Resurrection every time we come together to worship Him in the Divine Liturgy.

Easter Greeting from the Pastor

Dear Parishioners and friends,

We call it "Pascal Mystery": this awe-inspiring event which encompasses Christ's death, Christ's resurrection and Christ's return in glory. Although this event is situated in history it is always eternally present. Easter is its ritual celebration, yet each Sunday is an Easter Sunday and we are an Easter people. In the inspired words of the psalmist, we acclaim, "This is the day the Lord has made, let us rejoice and be glad in it."

Each one of us is called to that joy; a joy which comes from a change of mind and a change of heart, lifting us from all earth-bound attachments that occupy our days. This Easter joy is realized through the Sacrament of Reconciliation (Penance) which leads us to unity with the Risen Lord in the Eucharistic sacrifice a process of dying and rising again.

"Be intent on things above rather than on things of earth", we read in St. Paul. We let go of those things we falsely treasure, emptying ourselves of our pride and presumptions, becoming like Him, in the form of a servant -dispossessing ourselves from everything. Thus shall we await our sharing in triumph in the eternal and always present Pascal Mystery.

May your Easter be all joyful.

The Easter Obligation

Easter Obligation received recently from: Mark & Catherine John (VA), Pam & Rick Obyc, Jay & Liz Murad,

Many Thanks for all our generous and faithful parishioners who donated toward the 2022 Easter Obligation. We sent to our Diocese the collected amount of $3,000.00 to help our bishop pay for the tuitions of the seminarians (our future priests) and the retired priests who served our parishes and his other office and charitable expenses. As Christians we are not responsible only toward our parish but toward our brothers and sisters beyond the borders of our parish. May you have a blessed Easter and may your donation rise like incense before God who sees everything and reward you for your good deeds. God bless you all. Happy Easter

Spirituality: Prayer & Occupation

"If you get tired kneeling, sit down." That was Saint Francis de Sales' understanding advice to a pregnant woman, encouraging her to use the problems of her pregnancy itself as a prayer. "Be careful to spare yourself in this pregnancy ... You can only give God what you have ... suffer with love what you have to suffer."

Saint Francis was only giving his pregnant woman friend the same kind of common-sense spiritual advice that he gave to everyone who asked his help, in essence: "You need prayer. Without it, your soul shrivels up. But you have to pray within the circumstances of your own life. A wife is not a nun. A husband is not a monk." Listen to him:

"When God the Creator made all things, he commanded the plants to bring forth fruit each according to its own kind; he has likewise commanded Christians, who are the living plants to his Church, to bring forth the fruits of devotion, each one in accord with its character, station, and calling."

I say that devotion must be practiced in different ways by the nobleman and by the working man, by the servant and by the prince, by the widow, by the unmarried girl and by the married woman. But even this distinction is not sufficient; for the practice of devotion must be adapted to the strength, to the occupation, and to the duties of each one in particular.

Tell me, please ... whether it is proper for a bishop to want to lead a solitary life like a Carthusian; or for married people to be more concerned than a Capuchin about increasing their income; or for a working man to spend his whole day in church like a religious; or on the other hand for a religious to be constantly exposed like a bishop to all events and circumstances that bear on the needs of our neighbor. Is not this sort of devotion ridiculous, unorganized, and intolerable?" --John Cardinal O'CONNOR, Covenant of Love, pp.18-19.

Wisdom: Friends

There is no greater blessing than an understanding friend,
 One who's there in times of trouble and on whom we can depend,
 Who shares the happy moments and brightens cloudy days,
 One who's slow to criticize and quick to offer praise.
 There is no greater blessing than a friend who's loyal and true,
 The very special kind of friend that I have found in you.

Story: Learning Stories

1st Lesson - "Always Remember Those Who Serve."

In the days when an ice cream sundae cost much less, a 10-year-old boy entered a hotel coffee shop and sat at a table. A waitress put a glass of water in front of him. "How much is an ice cream sundae?" he asked. "Fifty cents," replied the waitress. The little boy pulled his hand out of his pocket and studied the coins in it. "Well, how much is a plain dish of ice cream?" he inquired. By now more people were waiting for a table and the waitress was growing impatient. "Thirty-five cents," she brusquely replied. The little boy again counted his coins. "I'll have the plain ice cream," he said. The waitress brought the ice cream, put the bill on the table and walked away.

The boy finished the ice cream, paid the cashier and left. When the waitress came back, she began to cry as she wiped down the table. There, placed neatly beside the empty dish, were two nickels and five pennies. You see, he couldn't have the sundae, because he had to have enough left to leave her a tip.

2nd Lesson - "The Obstacle in Our Path"

In ancient times, a King had a boulder placed on a roadway. Then he hid himself and watched to see if anyone would remove the huge rock.

Some of the king's wealthiest merchants and courtiers came by and simply walked around it. Many loudly blamed the king for not keeping the road clear, but none did anything about getting the stone out of the way.

Then a peasant came along carrying a load of vegetables. Upon approaching the boulder, the peasant laid down his burden and tried to move the stone to the side of the road. After much pushing and straining, he finally succeeded.

After the peasant picked up his load of vegetables, he noticed a purse lying in the road where the boulder had been. The purse contained many gold coins and a note from the king indicating that the gold was for the person who removed the boulder from the roadway.

The peasant learned what many of us never understand. Every obstacle presents an opportunity to improve our condition.

3rd Lesson: God is a Surgeon

We all know that God created man before woman... but then you always make a rough draft before you make the final masterpiece.

What's the difference between God and a surgeon?

God doesn't think. He's a surgeon.

A Time to Laugh (6)

Selfishness

An old woman died and was taken to the Judgment Seat by the angels. While examining her records however, the Judge could not find a single act of charity performed by her except for a carrot she had once given to a starving beggar.

Such, however, is the power of a single deed of love that it was decreed that she be taken up to heaven on the strength of that carrot. The carrot was brought to court and given to her. The moment she caught hold of it, it began to rise as if pulled by some invisible string lifting her up towards the sky.

A beggar appeared. He clutched on to the hem of her garment and was lifted along with her; a third person caught hold of the beggar's foot and was lifted too. Soon there was a long line of persons being lifted up to heaven by that carrot. And, strange as it may seem. The woman did not feel the weight of all those people who held on to her; in fact, since she was looking heavenward, she did not see them.

Higher and higher they rose until they were almost near the heavenly gates. That is when the woman looked back to catch a last glimpse of the earth and saw this whole train of people behind her.

She was indignant! She gave an imperious wave of her hand and shouted, "Off! Off, all of you! This carrot is mine!"

In making her imperious gesture she let go of the carrot for a moment -and down she fell with the entire train.

Love

The little daughter of an engineer was killed by a neighbor's dog. The cruel loss turned the community against the dog's owner and drove the father almost insane. At first it shattered his faith. Shortly afterward the region was stricken with famine conditions. The engineer took some of his meager supply of seed corn and planted it in the field of the neighbor whose dog had slain his little daughter.

Here is the love of enemy Jesus talked about. Nothing sentimental or philanthropic about it. Just the Grace of God can come and reward even those who have been shoved to the outermost port of great sorrow.

Prayer

When Brother Bruno was at prayer one night he was disturbed by the croaking of a bullfrog.

All his attempts to disregard the sound were unsuccessful so he shouted from his window, “Quiet ! I’m at my prayer.”

Now brother Bruno was a saint so his command was instantly obeyed. Every living creature held its voice so as to create a silence that would be favorable to prayer.

But now another sound intruded on Bruno’s worship, an inner voice that said, “Maybe God is as pleased with the croaking of that frog as with the chanting of your psalms.”

“What can please the ears of God in the croak of a frog?” was Bruno’s scornful rejoinder. But the voice refused to give up: “Why would you think God invented the sound?”

Bruno decided to find out why. He leaned out of his window and gave the order, “Sing!” The bullfrog’s measured croaking filled the air to the ludicrous accompaniment of all the frogs in the vicinity. And as Bruno attended to the sound, their voices ceased to jar for he discovered that, if he stopped resisting them, they actually enriched the silence of the night.

With that discovery Bruno’s heart became harmonious with the universe and, for the first time in his life he understood what it means to pray.
